Christmas Pageants

By Sandra McNiff

Herein lies a collection of inspirational Christmas Pageants that may be used on stage or in a church setting. Each one tells the Christmas story in a different way, and some are designed especially for children to perform. The story of the birth of Jesus in Bethlehem, as written in the Bible, unfolds in all of these pageants.

The Angel Gabriel announces to Mary that she will become the mother of Jesus, then Joseph learns the news from an Angel in a dream. They travel to Bethlehem, where there is no room for them to stay at any inn. One Innkeeper takes pity on them, and allows them to stay in a stable. There Jesus is born, among the animals and the hay. His mother puts him to sleep in a manger. Angels proclaim his birth to shepherds, who come from neighboring fields to adore the baby. Finally, Wise Men from the east make a journey to find the new King whose birth was foretold by the stars in the heavens.

McNiff's Christmas Pageants are a perfect choice for church groups, fundraisers or those in need of something simple for a large number of participants.
