

THE TIMEKEEPER

BY THOMAS M. KELLY

Liam Tibbets is an aging clockmaker in a small city in upstate New York. Zachary Tibbets, his son, a professor of English at the University of Virginia will be visiting. Zach discovers during his visit that his father is beginning to show signs of early stages of Alzheimer's disease. Zach is torn between teaching and leaving his position at UVA to take care of his father or taking him to Virginia. This, coupled with a newly discovered love in his life, places a great deal of stress upon him.
