

THE YEAR OF THE TIGER

by Robert Joseph Ahola

It is New Year's Eve, 1999. Three men-close friends for forty years-have used this occasion for a reunion, only to find that time, individual philosophies, and personality clashes have left them with little in common. A black tie dinner for six set near midnight of the New Millennium will send these aging tigers, their wives and young lovers on a new path: toward sunrise and a whole new perspective on life...or not! Suitable for adults.
