

Angel Gabe visits Rebecca, the recent widow of one of the finest Bakers of Bethlehem, to inform her it is God's wish that she and her three children pay homage to the Christ child. Guided by the Star of Bethlehem, they travel forth, greeted by many surprises along the way—all of which keep up the spirits of this devout (and feisty) family.

Rebecca is a resilient Mom who loves her two daughters and son dearly. Each of her children are afflicted with disabilities, but she teaches them that by helping one another, they will succeed, as well as showing others to be thankful for what they have.

Once at the manger, they visit with the Holy Family and prayed to ease the pain and suffering in the world (though they do not pray to change their lives personally at all). And by (not) doing so, God knew the unselfish sacrifice they had all made and blesses them with healing.

This pageant-like piece is meant to be presented in a seamless (or "sceneless") fashion. Lighting is used to help with the journey. It is recommended that the Holy Family be on stage from the start.
